RE: Request for Proposals for Home Renovations/ Construction Firms experienced with Exterior Home Repair Services

DATE: April 13, 2022

Section 1. Introduction

The purpose of this Request for Proposal (RFP) is to provide the City of Tuscaloosa's Office of Community and Neighborhood Services Let's Paint and Renovate Program and property owners with information to assist with exterior repairs on eligible homes in the City limits. The office has funding set aside to perform exterior repairs on selected residential units for the purpose of neighborhood beautification and revitalization. This RFP is a request for Home Repair Contractors experienced with painting, wood and trim work, siding, window and awning replacement and other repair/ renovation, as needed.

This is a Request for Proposals ("RFP") containing information concerning the above-referenced matter, an abbreviated scope of work, and evaluation items. Firms expressing interest should be fully capable of providing the end results requested.

This is a procurement of professional services as more particularly described herein. This procurement will be conducted in a manner providing full and open competition consistent with the standards of 24 CFR § 85.36. To wit:

- a. Each firm's experience and qualifications will be evaluated primarily as they relate to the firm's ability to provide home repairs that include but not limited to painting, wood and trim work, siding, window and awning replacement and other repair/ renovation on homes.

- b. Consideration will be given to such matters as firm integrity, compliance with public policy, record of past performance, and financial and technical resources.
- c. The City will require firms to be in possession of a Dun & Bradstreet (DUNS) number and have a complete and updated account with Sam.gov. Additionally, the City will require firms to execute a “Disbarment and Suspension Statement” certifying / verifying that the contractor is not suspended or disbarred or otherwise excluded under 2 CFR Section 408.220 of the government-wide non-procurement, disbursement and suspension list. This is a qualifications-based procurement of professional services whereby competitors’ qualifications will be evaluated and the most qualified firm will be selected, subject to negotiation of fair and reasonable compensation.
- d. Written proposals will be reviewed and rated by a panel of qualified City of Tuscaloosa employees. The City of Tuscaloosa may or may not elect to interview any of the responding firms.
- e. The City of Tuscaloosa has exclusive and sole discretion to determine the firm whose services will be most advantageous to the City of Tuscaloosa, and reserves the right to reject all firms.

The purpose of this inquiry is to determine the interest or non-interest and the qualifications of firms in providing the professional services required. A number of firms may be asked to express their interest in regard to these services. Following the receipt of proposals, a certain firm or firms may be selected for further consideration.

Section 2. General Scope of Services

The City of Tuscaloosa seeks the services of a certified lead assessment firm that has the knowledge, experience, and expertise to perform the services as requested.

The firm must be able to perform the following types of services upon request from the City:

On an as needed, as requested basis, provide home repairs that include but not limited to painting, wood and trim work, siding, window and awning replacement and other repair/ renovation on homes.

The firm must comply with all applicable state, local, and federal regulations related to the services provided to the City. The City reserves the right, subject to negotiation and agreement, in writing, with the selected firm, to either expand or limit the scope of services as needed.

The selected firm will be required to have sufficient personnel to complete the tasks required by this scope of services. The selected firm will complete the required tasks in a timely and efficient manner.

Additional Items Related to Proposals

a. Proposal Rejection/Proposal Costs

By issuing this RFP, the City does not commit to entering into a contract, to paying any costs incurred in the preparation of a proposal, or to procuring or contracting for services. The City reserves the right to cancel this RFP in whole or in part, to reject any and/or all proposals, to accept the proposal it considers the most favorable to the City's interests in its sole discretion, and to waive irregularities or informalities in any proposal or in the proposal procedures. The City reserves the right to reject all proposals and issue a new RFP, at its sole discretion. All proposals and other materials submitted in response to this RFP will become property of the City.

b. Contract and Insurance Requirements

The City has standard contract and insurance requirements for professional services contracts, and is unable to make substantial changes to the requirements for the contract to be used for this project. The laws of the State of Alabama shall govern the contract executed between the successful Consultant and the City, as well as any interpretations or constructions thereof. Further, the place of performance and transaction of business shall be deemed to be in the City of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and in the event of litigation, the exclusive venue and place of jurisdiction shall be in the Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.

c. Requests for Additional Information

The City reserves the right to request additional information to clarify the proposals.

¹ The disclosure of terminated contracts, claims, or litigation will not automatically disqualify a Respondent from consideration. The Selection Committee will review any matter disclosed, and make an independent determination as to whether the matter should disqualify the Respondent from consideration.

Public Records

Each Respondent is hereby informed that, upon submission of its proposal to the City in response to this RFP, the proposal becomes the property of the City.

Unless otherwise compelled by a court order, the City will not disclose any proposal while the City conducts its deliberative process in accordance with the procedures identified in this RFP. However, after the City either awards an agreement to a successful Consultant, or the City rejects all proposals, the City shall consider each proposal subject to the public disclosure requirements of the Alabama Open Records Act (Ala. Code § 36-12-40) and Tuscaloosa City Code § 2-4, unless there is a legal exception to public disclosure.

If a Respondent believes that any portion of its proposal is subject to a legal exception to public disclosure, the Respondent shall: (1) clearly mark the relevant portions of its proposal "Confidential"; (2) upon request from the City, identify the legal basis for exception from disclosure under the Open Records Act; and (3) defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the City regarding any claim by any third party for the public disclosure of the "Confidential" portion of the qualifications submittal.

END RFP.
